

SPECIAL PROGRAMMING AND GRASSROOTS RADIO CONFERENCE

Throughout the year KBOO celebrated and commemorated the communities that have been a part of this experiment in community building with open houses and on-air special programming.

From October 5 to 7, KBOO hosted hundreds of fellow community radio activists from across North America for the 2018 Grassroots Radio Conference. The theme: Community Radio is the Future.

CELEBRATIONS

June 3 was KBOO's official 50th birthday. That was the date, 50 years ago, that we received the telegram from the FCC acknowledging we were on the air. This year, the City of Portland declared June 3 KBOO Day!

On August 11, we held a fantastic Block Party in the neighborhood with live bands, DJs, food, drinks, activities and festivities. Hundreds of people crowded SE 8th Ave to celebrate 50 years of KBOO and the awesome folks in our broader community!

50 YEARS OF KBOO EXHIBIT AT THE OREGON HISTORICAL SOCIETY

For six months, KBOO was honored to share with the public an impressive display that presented our history and impact. In total, the KBOO exhibit engaged 30,687 participants who visited the Oregon Historical Society from January 20 to July 29, 2018, to learn about the significant contributions our independent radio station has made to Portland and the entire state of Oregon. Of that number, 9,416 participants were college-aged or younger. The OHS exhibit is permanently on display at KBOO if you missed it!

Check out the 50 years of KBOO website for a virtual tour of the exhibit and more: www.50yearsofkboo.fm

KBOO Community,
 Be proud, celebrate! KBOO turned 50 years old in 2018 and we ALL made that happen! For five decades, members, listeners, volunteers and staff have collaborated on an experiment in independent media that has survived the test of time.

We are 50. We are mighty. We are ready to sustain the KBOO mission and live up KBOO's vision! Your continued support is essential! Are you coming?

KBOO is participatory. When I first came to KBOO in 2011, I thought I was here for the radio. I stayed for the community, for the opportunity to be a part of a self-governing entity, focused on building a just and sustainable future. Collaborating with our volunteers, board and staff members on a daily basis is exhilarating. You NEED to experience it!

But most importantly you NEED to play an active role. KBOO is set up to really thrive when a larger diversity of us participate in committee work, attend board and annual meetings, vote in KBOO elections, help us plan for the future and spread the word about our station.

As I transitioned from my role as volunteer programmer to board member and now station manager, I have become aware of the tremendously small amount of resources KBOO actually dedicates to community-building efforts. A lot of our members' support is directly invested in creating great radio, but does that mean that our community engagement suffers? It is my humble opinion that it does. Low participation in our elections tells me so. About 250 of the 4500 of us voted during board elections in 2018 and 2017. The massive amount of work on the plates of staff and board members also tells me so.

KBOO needs your participation! In 2019, I am urging you to increase your involvement with YOUR community radio:

- Join the annual meeting on September 14, 2019, and VOTE!
- Apply for a midterm board appointment NOW!
The board currently has 4 open seats.

- Join a committee NOW—Programming, Engineering, Personnel/Governance, Development, Events, Finance, Strategic Planning.... Learn more at kboo.fm/committees
- Attend a Beloved Community or Interrupting Oppression workshop.... Learn more at kboo.fm/trainings
- Attend the Volunteer Appreciation party on January 5, 2019
- Volunteer to answer phones during membership drives
- Share your love of KBOO with your social media networks.... Learn more at kboo.fm/promotekboo
- Listen to News From the Boo on Wednesdays at 5:30pm
- Do all of the above or a combination thereof!

The harvest is bountiful, folks! Our community is AMAZING! But we cannot let the harvest go to waste because not enough of us are engaged in preserving the fruits of our hard labor. Share the gift of time, and if your time is limited, donate so that we can further contribute to our community-building efforts. Invest in YOUR community today!

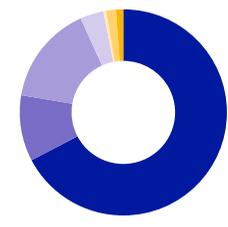

Thank you for your trust,
Delphine Criscenzo
Station Manager

Thank You to ALL staff, volunteers and friends of KBOO for the work that made this celebration-year a reality.

STRATEGIC GOALS RECAP

KBOO's vision for 2017-2020 is to become Oregon's community media hub, leveraging the power of the airwaves to support a revolution for a just and sustainable future. We will achieve this through the pursuit of these three strategic goals:

- By 2020, KBOO has deepened its internal and external connections to build "the Beloved Community."
 - By 2020, KBOO has strengthened its internal systems to live its mission and core values more effectively.
 - By 2020, KBOO's dynamic programming better serves and engages the local community to connect us with the broader world.
